

An evening with

MASTER BOOK CONSERVATORS

Deborah Howe
& Lizzie Curran '10

Deborah Howe, Collections Conservator at Dartmouth College Library, and Lizzie Curran '10, Master Book Conservator, will give a presentation on the revival and restoration of books from the middle ages and the multi-disciplinary approach to book construction and paper arts.

Tuesday
November 1st
7:00 pm
EAC Classroom I

Career Lunch
12:00-1:30 pm
Commons Dining Hall
Green Room

Deborah and Lizzie will be informally meeting with students who have an interest in archival materials/maintenance, book arts, letterpress, or book conservation as a profession.

For more information, please contact Wade Simpson at Crossett Library, ext. 4607.