The Black Music Division is pleased to announce that, Jimmy Lyons, Musician-Composer, will be doing a Workshop in improvisation, Monday, November 4, at 4:30 p.m. in the Carriage Barn. He will be available all day Monday for talks and consultation with students interested in improvisation.

Mr. Lyons is possibly best known for his work as an alto saxophonist with the pianist, Cecil Taylor. In recent years, however, he has recorded on his own and has performed with his own Trio.

All students taking classes in Black Music are expected to attend the Workshop. All other interested members of the community are cordially invited to attend.

For further information, please call Sue Jones at Ext. 213.
