

NAVY V-12 SHOW

Adams Memorial Theatre
Williamstown, Massachusetts

Thursday & Friday, September 28 & 29, 1944

7:45 p.m.

CAST

Dance Group

Ethel Winter, Chairman
Brenda Briden
Diana Gollman
Carrol Robin
Joan Skinner
Evelyn White

Octet

Patricia Crocker, Director
Holly Appel
Joya Bovingdon
Jane Marston
Betsy Parrish
Sally Price
Katharine Sawtelle
Joan Skinner

Skits

Audrey C. Stern, Chairman
Rita Friedman
Betsy Parrish
Mary Sherwood

Singers

Dorothy Caplow
Jean Noyes
Theo Strong

TRANSPORTATION

Thursday - 23 people (including Miss Hill and Mr. Bales)

Friday - 21 or possibly 23 people

Transportation by Bennington College bus which carries 14 people, and one Navy station wagon. The Navy station wagon is to be arranged by C.P.O. Scott.

SCHEDULE

Thursday, September 28th

12:30 sharp - Leave from shipping entrance at Commons.

Lunch at Williamstown (to be arranged by C.P.O. Scott).

Afternoon rehearsal at Evans Memorial Theatre (arranged by C.P.O. Scott).

7:45 p.m. - Curtain.

10:00 p.m. - Return to Bennington.

Friday, September 29th

6:00 p.m. - Early dinner in Blue Dining Room (PLEASE BE PROMPT!).

6:30 p.m. sharp! - Leave for Williamstown from shipping entrance.

7:45 p.m. - Curtain (Bennington group is not in first scene of show.)

10:00 p.m. - Return to Bennington.

PROPS

Audrey C. Stern will let C.P.O. Scott know about props needed for the skits.

A microphone will be needed for the three singers.

The dance group will need a phonograph with amplified sound for the Rhumba and will need to have the band play DARKTOWN STRUTTERS BALL. Mr. Bales will bring a phonograph if there is not one in good condition at Williamstown.

PROGRAM MATERIAL

DANCE GROUP: "Darktown Strutters Ball"
"Rhumba"

(As much stage space as possible is needed for the two dances.)

OCTET: Opening with "Chattanooga Choo-Choo", swinging into "How Ya Goin' to Keep 'em down on the Farm" (with new words applying to the V-12 Unit, written by the Octet).

Selections from the following: "Ragtime Cowboy", "St. James Infirmary", "Behind the Moon", "You Took my Love", "Living on Love", "Lindy", "When Pa... .", "Honey".

(The Octet sings unaccompanied.)

SINGERS: Dorothy Caplow. Selections from: "Embraceable You"
"Stormy Weather"
"Somebody Loves Me"

Jean Noyes. Selections from: "Blue Skies"
"Memphis Blues"
"Summertime"

Theo Strong. Selections: (to be decided upon)