

COLLEGE WEEK

WEEKLY ANNOUNCEMENTS
FOR THE BENNINGTON COLLEGE COMMUNITY

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

MARCH 29 -
APRIL 7, 1996
VOL. CXXVIII, NO. 5

Events marked by an asterisk (*) are free and open to the public.

Due to long weekend, April 12 - April 15, next week's issue of College Week will be for a two-week period, April 5 through April 21. There will be no College Week for the week of April 12 through April 21. Please make sure you submit any information for this expanded issue by 5 p.m., Tuesday, April 2.

FRIDAY, MARCH 29

*JOAN LA BARBARA

Bennington will present the next concert of the "Fridays at 8:00" series for the spring term. The concert will feature respected composer, performer, and sound artist Joan LaBarbara. LaBarbara will be performing "New Works for the New Voice," a musical program in three parts. LaBarbara's career has been devoted to exploring the human voice as a multifaceted instrument. She is an acknowledged pioneer in the field of contemporary classical music and sound art. Deane Carriage Barn, 8 p.m.

*SAUL OSTROW

There will be a panel discussion entitled "Abstract Painting: Painting Beyond Its Means." The discussion, lead by art critic Saul Ostrow, will include artists Rochelle Feinstein, Lisa Hoke, Fabian Maraccion, and Curtis Mitchell. All four artists have a work displayed in Ostrow's show. Usdan Gallery, 5 p.m.

*ART OPENING & RECEPTION

There will be an opening reception for the art exhibit entitled "Painting in an Expanding Field." The exhibit, organized by Saul Ostrow, will include the work of 37 artists. The show will run until April 19. Regular Gallery hours are 1 p.m. to 5 p.m., Monday - Saturday. Usdan Gallery, 7 p.m.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK

JOAN LA BARBARA

◆ Bennington College's "Fridays at 8:00" series will present composer, performer, and sound artist Joan LaBarbara, Friday, March 29, Deane Carriage Barn, 8 p.m.

CHORAL CONCERT

◆ Bennington College will present the Voices of Freedom Gospel Choir from the University of Connecticut at Storrs, Saturday, March 30, Greenwall Music Workshop, 7 p.m.

COWBOY

◆ Bennington College will present Cowboy, Jason Kingsley's directing thesis, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, April 2, 3, and 4 in the Downstairs Café, 7:30 p.m.

SATURDAY, MARCH 30

*VOICES OF FREEDOM GOSPEL CHOIR

Bennington College will present the Voices of Freedom Gospel Choir from the University of Connecticut at Storrs. Founded in 1970 by Lorraine Williams-Bailey, Voices of Freedom Gospel Choir was originally composed of only African-American students, but today boasts a membership of diverse races and religions. The choir has grown from 12 members in 1970 to over 80 today. Lisa Clayton, the choir's director, said, "The group sings about anything and everything that has to do with freedom, personal and civil liberties, and love and peace for all people. Throughout time, anonymous voices have always sung, searching for freedom, calling and hollering, appealing and sustaining, gossiping, scolding, and storytelling. In addition, the group symbolizes brotherhood and provides a forum for the work of modern black composers." Greenwall Music Workshop, 7 p.m.

SUNDAY, MARCH 31

*THREE WINTERS THEATRE

Three Winters Theatre will presents A Revival of Vachel Lindsay's Gospel of Beauty, a lively, choreographed, intense and vigorous evening on the minstrel, missionary and poet Vachel Lindsay. This unique approach to presenting poetry in performances takes full advantage of the uncanny rhythms and unique philosophies of a man ahead of his times. The theatre group chose this piece for its sparse sets and challenging language. This totally unique and vigorous theatre experience is directed and arranged by Harriet Worrell. Upstairs Café, 8 p.m.

CELEBRATION: WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

WISG is sponsoring a reading in "Celebration of Women's History Month." Come and/or read you own work or provide work by women authors. McCullough Living Room, 1 p.m.

TUESDAY, APRIL 2

*EPISCOPALIAN SERVICE

The second in a series of religious services will be held. This evening's Episcopalian prayer service will be conducted by the Reverend Whitman Dennison. Deane Carriage Barn, 6:30 p.m.

*COWBOY

Bennington College will present Cowboy, Jason Kingsley's directing thesis. Written by Bennington alum Matt Swan, Cowboy is a play about Cuba's free market revolution, capitalists, American interference, and the cost of corporate tactics to individuals. The cast includes alum Jonas Omberg and students Hillary Redmon, David Karevicius and Burcu Cavus; costumes by Julia Chmaj; and set by Cemre Durusoy. Downstairs Café, 7:30 p.m..

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3

*COWBOY

Robert Waldman, Dean of the College, invites students to join him for dinner and conversation on Wednesday nights in the Dining Halls from 6:15 to 7:15 p.m.

SEPC MEETING

The Student Educational Policy Committee (SEPC) invites all interested students, faculty and administrators to attend its weekly meeting. If you have issues you think SEPC should discuss or are interested in any of the topics SEPC will be discussing, please come and play a role. The agenda for tonight's meeting is: General communications session. Purple Dining Room, 6 p.m.

*FARM INFORMATION SESSION

Emily Hunter, director of the Community Farm at Bennington College, and Kerry Woods invite all interested students to an open discussion on the new Farm. If you have any questions or ideas about the Farm, please come and share them. The Farm is a community venture and we encourage participation by all. Dickinson 117, 6:30 p.m.

THURSDAY, APRIL 4

*COWBOY

Repeat of Tuesday night's production, Cowboy. Downstairs Café, 7:30 p.m.

FRIDAY, APRIL 5

*DAYBREAK

Bennington College will present Daybreak. The play, written and directed by Nathan Parker, tells the story of an old man attempting to destroy a young philosophical short story writer and his runaway girlfriend. A self-proclaimed maniacal circus revolving around sex, sharks, Nyquil, documentary filmmaking and the American Dream, the cast includes Joel Garland '97, Margaret Eisenberg '99, Jennifer Lipman '96, Mike Carlip '97, and Roy Scheider as himself; set design by Pete Seward; lightning design by Erica Stuckwisch '96; costumes by Noe Venable '98; and stage managed by Allison Mitchell '97. Margot Tenney Theatre, 8 p.m.

SATURDAY, APRIL 6

*DAYBREAK

Repeat of Friday night's production, Daybreak. Margot Tenney Theatre, 8 p.m.

SUNDAY, APRIL 7

*DAYBREAK

Repeat of Friday night's production, Daybreak. Margot Tenney Theater, 8 p.m.

UPCOMING EVENTS

*MARY OLIVER

On Tuesday, April 9, Bennington College will present "An Evening With Mary Oliver." Oliver, the winner of the Pulitzer Prize for Poetry will read from her own works. "Oliver's works are thoroughly convincing as genuine, moving and implausible as the first caressing breeze of spring" - New York Times. For more information contact Special Events, ext. 368. A reception will follow the reading. Deane Carriage Barn, 8 p.m.

*ART/MUSIC PERFORMANCE

On Friday and Saturday, April 19 and 20, Bennington College will present "Orchestrating of Objects." This performance is presented by Sue Rees' sculpture class and Su Lian Tan's music/composition/voice class from Middlebury College. It will use a theatrical format to present work involving sound, voices, sculpture pieces, and performance. The aim is for students to produce sculptural objects and sets which will define the placement of the "orchestra" with the pieces generating sound. A composition will be arranged for the pieces and performed here as well as at Middlebury (around the 24-28 of April) and also towards the end of the semester in the courtyard at Mass MOCA. Martha Hill Dance Workshop, 8 p.m.

COMMUNITY GARDEN

Plots in the community garden are available, as in past years, to any member of the college community (staff, faculty, or student). Individual plots are about 30 by 30 feet (you can arrange to share a plot, or request a half-plot if that is more than you need), and will be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis (in the past there have been enough plots for everyone, but the garden was fully used last year). You may request more than one plot. If you had a plot last summer, and wish to use the same area this year (to benefit from your weeding efforts), priority will be given; otherwise plot locations will be assigned randomly. Please request a plot only if you are planning to be here during most of the growing season to use and tend it. There will be a $15 per plot fee to cover soil preparation (manuring, plowing, and disking), which will be done as soon as possible in April, and some basic tools for common use. Water is available by hose from Dickinson. Everything else is up to you! The community garden is immediately west of Dickinson. If you wish to request space in the garden, contact Kerry Woods, ext. 307 as soon as possible.

All assistant positions will be designed especially for people to learn about the theater business.

HEALTH SERVICES

Health Service is open daily with a nurse on duty from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. Weekend hours are Friday, 11 p.m., through Sunday, 11 p.m. On Saturday and Sunday between 11 p.m. and 7 a.m., the door is locked. Please knock on the door if a nurse is needed. In the event of an emergency when Health Service is closed, call emergency extension 210. A trip to the hospital emergency room without prior approval may not be covered by school insurance. A college physician is available Monday, Wednesday, and Friday for clinic hours. Check with Health Service for exact hours. Doctor's appointments should be arranged either through the nurse on duty or the Health Service secretary. Students who miss a doctor's appointment without prior notice will be charged $10 for that missed appointment. For the spring term, Health Services will be closed every other Saturday and Sunday from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. Security can contact the nurse on call if needed during this time.

LAW SCHOOLS

Students interested in law school are invited to speak with Ron Cohen, Pre-Law advisor. Stop by Barn 80, call extension 113, or leave a note in his mailbox in Commons to set up an appointment. PROGRAM IN PUBLIC & COMMUNITY SERVICE NEWSLETTER
VOL. 4
SPRING TERM, 1996

Why not consider volunteering in the local community? Local schools, social service agencies, and many community organizations provide a variety of opportunities to assist them and the individuals they serve. Unless otherwise specified, students and others interested in any of the following should contact Ron Cohen, Barn 80, ext. 113.

New listings:

The Bennington Museum has a number of community days, open houses, and one-day outreach programs. Judith Ziller, Education Coordinator at the Museum, is interested in working with students on current programs and in developing new programs. Information on the Museum, as well as voluntary service positions as gallery guides and administrative and research assistants, are available in the FWT/Career Center Office.

In collaboration with the Bennington Cooperative Service Council and the Bennington Retired Senior Volunteer Program, the College is working to develop a list of local citizens (including interested Bennington students, faculty, and staff) willing to speak to a class at the Mount Anthony Union Middle School. If you have expertise or experience you would be willing to share with interested teachers and students at the Middle School and are willing to have your name listed in this Community Registry for the remainder of this school year, please call Ron Cohen immediately.

Continuing listings:

Southern Vermont College is looking for a student with experience and expertise in computer graphics to assist it in preparing the SVC WWW Home Page. Interested students should contact Susan O'Neill at 442-5427.

The College has been working for several months now with the Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP) in Bennington to develop a resource center containing information on volunteer opportunities in Bennington County. One aspect of the Center will be CARENET, a local network through which any citizen of the community (including Bennington College students) interested in volunteering would have access to a database containing this information. RSVP is looking for a student with sufficient computer expertise to assist in the regular updating of CARENET. Interested students should call Josie Rahe, Director of RSVP at 447-1545, or Ron Cohen.

The Red Brick Head Start in Shaftsbury is looking for a classroom assistant, particularly on Tuesdays. The class is a small one (nine students), but many of the children need one-on-one supervision. Bennington students can also help plan visits by Head Start classes to campus. Those interested should call Verna at 442-2420.

The Tutorial Center in Bennington welcomes suggestions from students interested in presenting their own work to classes. This might include, but need not be restricted to, readings, discussions, exhibitions, and performances.

The Community Service Program at Mount Anthony High School is interested in having Bennington students talk about their own experiences in public and community service, and in having Bennington students facilitate discussions of service-related issues.

The Everett Public Service Internship Program provides $175 in weekly expenses to students selected as interns to work at one of 44 participating organizations. Organizations for summer, 1996 include: Advocates for Children (Queens, NY), Alliance for Justice (Washington, DC), Brooklyn Children's Museum, Center for Science in the Public Interest (Washington), Facing History and Ourselves (Brookline, MA), Human Rights Watch, Museum of Modern Art (New York City), National Public Radio (Washington), Native American Rights Fund (Boulder, CO), NOW Legal Defense and Education Fund (New York City), Physicians for Social Responsibility (Washington, DC), Shorebank Corporation (Chicago), Tobacco Products Liability Project (Boston). Both undergraduate and graduate students are eligible to apply. More information is available in Barn 80.

Vermont Department of Corrections. Two positions are available:

1. Pre-sentence investigations assistant to assist staff in conducting background investigations on defendants appearing in Vermont District Court. Responsibilities include research, interviewing, writing, and appearing in District Court to support the final written report. Writing and word processing skills are essential. Volunteers must be able to present a reasonably professional appearance when interacting with the public or the criminal justice system. Activities are performed at the State Office Complex (in the town of Bennington) and at various locations in Bennington County.
2. Assistant to supervisor of mandated community service teams. For more information about either position, contact Tom Freeman at 447-2777.

Students completing work on senior theses, concerts, performances, and exhibitions might consider presenting their work at local schools, civic associations, and other clubs or organizations. This would parallel an effort by 25 members of the faculty who have agreed to present their work as part of a Bennington College Speakers' Bureau.

The Alternative Community Experiences (ACE) Program provides daily programs and tutorial services to approximately 35 local area students (ages 7-22) identified as having special needs. There are several opportunities available for students interested in internships or weekly volunteer positions. Those interested should contact Ed Sanders, Director of the Program, at 447-8403.

The Bennington Area Home Health Agency needs people willing to read to members of the community in their homes.

PAVE (Project Against Violent Encounters) needs advocates to serve in several capacities: hot line worker, court advocate, safe-home provider or community educator. No prior experience or particular skills required. Training provided.

Bennington Head Start.

1. Classroom/Activity Assistant. Assist Head Start teachers by bringing interests, talents, skills, and hobbies into the classroom--in music, puppetry, dance, drama, and intercultural games. This position also encompasses daily classroom routines (loading and unloading busses, meals, outdoor play, classroom supervision, and cleaning, all under a teacher's direction). No background experience or training required, only enthusiasm in sharing interests with young children.
2. Partnering. Become a familiar face to a child who needs some guidance in classroom social interactions by bringing the child into the activities of the group in appropriate ways. This includes language and behavior modeling, and building the child's self-esteem as part of the group. Background in psychology or child development required, as is experience with young children. Position involves some degree of physical activity, in indoor and outdoor play.
3. Tutors for Parents. Either one-on-one, working on math or literacy education, or with small groups, particularly helping to prepare for upcoming examinations, such as for a driver's permit. Monday or Tuesday, from 10 a.m. - 12 noon.
4. Child Care. Caring for children while parents are attending small classes. Wednesday evenings, 6 - 8 p.m.

The North Bennington Graded School (K-6). The College has a continuing collaboration with the school, and there are several opportunities as classroom assistants.

Prospect Nursing Home. Volunteers to assist Activity Director in planned therapeutic activities for residents. Activities normally scheduled for periods of 1/2 or 1 hour during the day, as well as evenings and weekends.

If you are interested in participating, stop by to talk with Ron Cohen in Barn 80 or call ext. 113.
