ART EXHIBIT

There will be an exhibit of the works of Daniel Shapiro and Paul Feeley in the Commons Gallery from May 16th through the 24th.

FROM THE NON-RESIDENT TERM OFFICE

Jobs at Harvard University: Miss Carolyn Thanisch of the Harvard Placement Office, and Mrs. Marcia Kinslow, Employment Manager for Harvard Medical School, will be on Campus on Friday morning to interview any candidates interested in permanent jobs for next year. Anyone interested in talking to them should contact the Non-Resident Term Office. They are interested in economic majors, science majors and literature majors, as well as anyone who would be interested in working in their Library, Museum or College offices.

The American Committee on United Europe announced a fellowship covering all expenses for a year's study at the College of Europe in Belgium. Requirements are an A.B. Degree by July, 1953 and fluency in French, as well as English. For further details contact the Non-Resident Term Office.

Babysitter Wanted

Mrs. Wilcox wants a babysitter for Friday afternoons from 2:00 to 6:00 p.m.

PANEL ON "THE SECOND SEX"

The General Meetings Committee announces a panel discussion of Mlle. Simone de Beauvoir's book, "The Second Sex", in the Carriage Barn Lounge on Sunday evening, June 7th. Panel members so far committed are Wallace Fowlie and Lawrence Frank.

Copies of the Saturday Review of Literature containing a number of reviews of the controversial book have been placed in each student living-room. The General Meetings Committee suggests that students borrow the book itself from home in view of the stimulated demand for the few copies now on the Campus.

FROM THE COOPERATIVE STORE

We are planning a RUMMAGE SALE for June 10th, so begin sorting the clothing you wish to discard. Also, on June 19th, there will be a Used Book dealer here to buy text books.

We have a lovely suit left here since Carol Brown's exhibition. If it is not claimed before the Rummage Sale, it will be sold.
