To the College Community:

The Bennington- Williams Committee has been trying to show horror movies this week in an effort to raise the money needed to pay one of the bands for Carnival. On Sunday, the sound did not work; last night a bulb blew and there was no replacement on campus. This means that we are now no closer to being able to pay the band than we were last week; more specifically, we are also $70 in debt to the movie rental company. And the movies are overdue in Pittsburgh.

There is only one solution that we can see. We will be showing BOTH sets of films tonight starting at 7:30 in Barn 1. The lineup will be as follows: The Great Chase, W.C.Fields, 7:30; The Hunchback of Notre Dame, Lon Chaney, 7:45; The Mummy, Boris Karloff, 9:15; Frankenstein Meets Wolfman, Karloff-Chaney; 9:25; Cartoons (Little Lulu, Mighty Mouse, etc.) 9:35; Mr. Sardonicus, early sixties horror flick, 10:00.

The price for all or part of these films MUST be $1.50. We need at the very least the money to pay the film company. Please come and please contribute. Both the band and the movies were done for your benefit, and future events will be impossible unless we pull ourselves out of the financial hole.

TONIGHT, ALL NIGHT, AT BARN ONE !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
