FROM THE NON-RESIDENT TERM OFFICESUMMER JOBS

There are several camp counselor jobs available. Camp Accomac in Hillside, Maine, is very anxious to have a dance counselor. If anyone is interested, she should communicate directly with Mrs. Eugene Wolf, 6505 North 8th Street, Philadelphia 26. The salary is open, depending on experience. Transportation will be provided to and from the camp.

There is an opportunity for a selling job this summer in a "prestige type store" in Springfield, Massachusetts. Anyone interested can read the details in the Non-Resident Term Office.

There is a job for an accomplished pianist at a lodge in Stowe, Vermont, this summer. If there is anyone interested, please get in touch with the Non-Resident Term Office at once.

NOTICE

Mrs. Dione Lucas, diplome Cordon Bleu, has generously offered to give a demonstration of French cooking on Friday, June 10th, at 8:00 p.m. in the Carriage Barn, for the benefit of the Scholarship Fund.

Tickets will cost 50¢ for students;
$1.00 for general admission, and will be available shortly at the store.

Mrs. Lucas conducts a cooking school in New York, a television program for Caloric range (adv.) and is the sister of Miss Orrea Pernel (adv.).

The menu will be announced beforehand, but part of it is known to be a French omelette, a casserole and a dessert -- all very handy for the future brides of America.
