FROM THE STUDENT PERSONNEL OFFICE

Mid-Term vacation begins on Friday,
October 22nd at 1:00 p.m. and ends on Wednesday, October 27th at 8:30 a.m.

It is taken for granted that students will meet all of their college obligations including conferences before leaving for vacation.

Attendance will be taken in each class on October 22 and 27 by the Student
E. P. C. representative.

FROM THE DINING HALLS DEPARTMENT

Students who are planning to remain on Campus for the Mid-Term Vacation are asked to sign on the sheet on the Bulletin Board in the BLUE PANTRY by THURSDAY LUNCH, October 21st.

The Dining Halls will be prepared to serve only those students whose names appear on this sheet. Faculty and Staff members are asked to give Mrs. Wilson 24 hours notice.

NO GUESTS WILL BE SERVED IN THE DINING HALLS DURING THE MID-TERM VACATION.

During the Vacation period all meals served, including dinner, will be cafeteria style.

FROM THE PHOTOGRAPHY STUDIO

The photographic equipment in the Photography Studio is to be put in storage.

Will members of the community who have borrowed equipment from this Studio return it soon to Mrs. Moselsio?

FROM THE HEALTH SERVICE

In general, we were pleased with the Community response to the Tuberculosis program, but we have had no contributions since our request for medicine bottles.

How about cleaning up your room before long weekend and bringing us the bottles?

FROM THE NON-RESIDENT TERM OFFICE

If there are any students who want to work in a ski lodge this winter and are willing to start on December 20th, there are jobs available for 3 or 4 students in Stowe, Vermont. For further information come up to the Non-Resident Term Office, Barn 33.

Students who are planning to go job-hunting over long weekend and want a letter of introduction may get one in the Non-Resident Term Office.

When students return from Mid-Term Vacation they should report to the Non-Resident Term Office on the results of any interviews they may have had.

One of our alumna in Washington, D. C. is interested in renting a room to a Bennington student during the Non-Resident Term. For further information see Mrs. Miller, Barn 33.
