Info Session for “Future of Arts and Culture” FWT InternshipFour visual and performing arts students have the opportunity to take part in a unique FWT experience exploring the future of the arts while being in residency at Arizona State University (ASU). The FWT will include a combination of work in a cultural organization in the Phoenix area, ideally related to a student's field of interest, as well as a collaborative, six-week practicum course taught at ASU's Herberger Institute for Design and the Arts. Travel grant and room and board is provided. (See full description on WorkLink.) Join us in DownCat on Wednesday, October 19 at 12:30pm to learn more.

SEPC/FWT Outreach Sessions: Mondays 8:30pm and Tuesdays 12pmMembers of SEPC and the Field Work Term Director have been meeting with students informally to talk about key FWT issues. If you'd like to join the conversation, SEPC members will be available on Monday, 8:30-9:30pm, in UpCat; FWT Director Faith McCellan will also be available in the Yellow Dining Room with SEPC reps on Tuesday, from 12-1pm. This week's topic is Independent Study.
