

Music at Bennington presents....

Lyra Silverstein's

Senior Concert

Deane Carriage Barn

May 28, 1999

This concert is dedicated to the spirit of music. It is truly one universal language. May this universal connection never cease to exist....

Many thanks to everyone who is performing tonight: Irving Rappaport, Nadir Naqui, Ben Skolnik, Jared Lewis, and John Arnold. Thank you John for being a very wonderful and patient teacher. Thank you to my family and to all my friends, without them, I would simply go insane. Thank you all for coming!

There will be a brief reception in the next room following the performance. Hope to see you there!

Solo pieces:

Etudes Simples #1-6

Leo Brouwer
(b.1939)

Sonatine Op. 71 No.1

Mauro Giuliani
(1781-1829)

maestoso

menuetto

trio

rondo

Gavotte I (BWV 995)

J.S. Bach
(1685-1750)

Prelude #1

Heitor Villa-Lobos
(1888-1959)

Prelude #4

INTERMISSION

Ensemble pieces:

Seventeenth Century Suite
for mandolin and guitar:

Angelo Musolino
(b.1937)

mandolin - Lyra Silverstein

guitar - John Arnold

I. Air

III. Gigue

Pieces for flute and guitar

Mauro Giuliani
(1781-1829)

No. 1, 10, & 3

flute - Irving Rappaport

guitar - Lyra Silverstein

Cuban Landscape with Rain

Leo Brouwer
(b.1939)

guitar - Nadir Naqvi, Ben Skolnik, Jared Lewis, and

Lyra Silverstein

This concert is made possible in part through the generous support of Judith Rosenberg Hoffberger '54 and the Henry and Ruth Blaustein Rosenberg Foundation."