FROM THE SWITCHBOARD AND POST OFFICE

All members of the Community, not employed at Switchboard and not directly concerned with mail distribution, are requested not to come in back of the Switchboard or into the Post Office. Notes, papers, etc. can be placed in boxes from outside. General notices from any office or committee can be cleared through Miss Bowman's office and will be put in boxes by the Switchboard employees. If anyone has packages, the operators will hand them out as soon as possible. We are asking the cooperation of the Community in not having to ask anyone to stay out of the Post Office.
