

October 18, 1967

GALLEY

There has been a great deal of enthusiasm shown by faculty and students at Mt. Anthony Union High School for the teaching program which was started last spring by Bennington College students. After a meeting with the art faculty of the high school we found that there were many positions open for students to assist in the classes.

Any students who are interested in teaching art or assisting in the classroom please contact Vera Newmann, Box 334, as soon as possible.