

BENNINGTON COLLEGE MUSIC DIVISION

Presents

A SENIOR CONCERT*

By

LAURA GRAYSON

Wednesday
June 2, 1982

8:15 p.m.
Greenwall Music Workshop

Saltarello

14th Century Italian

Laura Grayson, sopranino recorder
David Zicarelli, tambourine

Der Fussreise

HUGO WOLF

Laura Granson, voice
Kris Karlsson, piano

Piece for solo bass recorder ('81-'82)

LAURA GRAYSON

Laura Grayson

Trio from "Ploner Musiktag"
for 3 recorders (1932)

PAUL HINDEMITH

Gail Schonbeck, soprano recorder
Laura Grayson, alto recorder
Gunnar Schonbeck, tenor recorder

- Intermission -

Edna; a very breif bird story ('82)

LAURA GRAYSON

Laura Grayson, recorders, illustrations
Jacob Glick, mandolin
Lori Goldston, cello
Gunnar Schonbeck, tuba
Jody Kruskal, narrator

Jeffrey Levine, conductor

Trio

J. J. QUANTZ (1697-1773)

Laura Grayson, alto recorder
Jacob Glick, viola d'amore
Marianne Finckel, harpsichord
Maxine Neuman, 'cello

Down on the Farm

(I don't know who wrote
this)

Laura Grayson, voice/ Jody Kruskal, guitar

DER FUSSREISE (The Walk)

With fresh cut staff at break of day
To the road I'm taking,
Thro' the woods awaking, o'er the hills a way.
Like a bird singing gladly
Where green leaves enfold,
Or the rapture coursing madly, through the grapes of gold,
When the sun appears at dawning:

Thus old Adam in me moving
Stirs me, spring and fall to roving,
Heav'n descended, never ended
Joy of Paradise' first morning.
Though deservest not so much disfavor, Adam,
As stern teachers oft have stated;
Though today, in love and praise,
Still a joyous hymn dost raise
As on that first day of things created
To thy great Creator and Preserver.

Naught I'd reed of heaven, could this be given:
All my life entranced to wandering
While the earth smiles in morning splendor!

Many thanks to: Gail and Gunnar Schonbeck, Jack Glick, Frank Baker, Michael Downs, Peter Golub, and Lou Calabro.

Many, Many Thanks to: Jeff Levine

* This concert is being presented in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the Bachelor of Arts Degree