

SEPC Agenda March 22, 2005

The Talking Heads and Laurie Emanuele are putting together a survey about the offices on campus that deal directly with students...It will be based on questions submitted by the offices themselves...will update throughout the process

-If you could ask one question about Study Abroad, what would it be?

Remind faculty members to turn in class rep names to program coordinators

-Hand out first 7 weeks classes info.

People coming to meetings:

-Faculty Advising Committee: any new feedback from people this week?

-Hand out Faculty Advising Handbooks

-Faculty (esp. members of FPRC) who want to talk about bylaws stating "in good academic standing"

No date planned yet.

Terry Creach, Marguerite Feitlowitz, Dana Reitz

Westbrook problem...

What's going on with CCT?

Rep for Media? Should Programs Groups have 1 or 2 reps?

Discipline updates

How many students are interested?

What is ~~the~~ ~~least~~ effective your biggest concern about study abroad?

(This could pertain to communication, application process, or general ~~knowledge~~ information)

FAdvising - can students be informed of what to expect?
Can we address social weirdness of switching?

undergrads can't have tutorials in CCT
