On Wednesday, March 28, the CSC Cinema Society will present "Belle De Jour", a 1967 French-Italian film starring Catherine Deneuve as a frigid young housewife who decides to spend some of her afternoons as a prostitute. Directed by Luis Bunuel, this film also stars Jean Sorel, Genevieve Page, and Michel Piccoli.

The film starts at 6:30 in the Multi-Purpose Room of the Campus Center, and the admission is free.

"The Journey of Abraham"

Castleton State College and the Vermont Council on the Arts will present a modern ballet entitled "The Journey of Abraham, A Personal Call from god" on various dates and at various locations throughout Vermont.

This original hour-long production based on the story of Abraham in the Old Testament was conceived, choreographed, and directed by Susan Sgorbati. A Bennington College graduate, Ms. Sgorbati was recently appointed CSC "choreographer in residence" by the Vermont Council on the Arts.

Phillip Sprague from North Bennington is the designer of this production, and the composer is John Riddle from Bennington.

The dates and times are as follows: Friday, March 30, at the Castleton State College Fine Arts Center at 1 p.m. and 8 p.m. (a children's performance); Saturday, April 21 at 8 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Manchester; Sunday, April 29 at 8 p.m. at Peter's Episcopal Church in Bennington; and Sunday, May 6 at 8 p.m. at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Rutland.

Choreographer in Residence

Susan Sgorbati, a graduate of Bennington College, has been sponsored by the Vermont Council On The Arts as a "choreographer-in-residence" at Castleton State College for the Spring Semester. An original composition, The Journey of Abraham, A Personal Call From God, will be choreographed and directed by Ms. Sgorbati and will be performed at the College and in various churches throughout Vermont.

Based on the story of Abraham in the Old Testament, the hour long program will offer a unique opportunity for students involved in the Performing Arts at Castleton. The work will involve a collaboration of dancers, designers, musicians, and a choir.

From Shaftsbury, Vermont, Ms. Sgorbati performed for two years with the Collaborative Ensemble of Dancers and Musicians. She is presently a dance instructor at Williams College, Williamstown, Massachusetts, and performs Liturgical Dance Programs throughout Vermont and Massachusetts.
